5.0 New Business

5.1 Update from Second District Supervisor Karen Spiegel

- I've been working hard to be out there to meet you at events, so I have an opportunity to get to know the community a lot better. I have a little bit of familiarity with it. But I'm really working hard to be out here. Those of you who don't know, I have a great staff that have been out in the community at times when I can't be there.
- We are growing together. We can only do that when we have communication. So we have an open door policy. You can call or email my staff. We want to be good partners and we want to have a good relationship.
- The Temescal Valley Municipal Advisory Council team is here to serve you
- We work together with State Assemblyman Essayli and Senator Seyarto
- We have a housing shortage and a very strange market with difficult financing.
- Discussed keeping the TVMAC meeting on the originally scheduled date of February 14th. The Council decision was to keep February 14th as the TVMAC meeting date.

5.2 Update from SoCal Gas

- Adam Eventov, SoCal Gas
- The SoCal Gas bills should not be as bad as last year. Last year's gas prices were high due to pipelines being down, limited storage, the war in Europe and high demand

- Gas prices are higher but not like last year. Pipelines are working. We're allowed to double our storage capacity. Storage is important because SoCal Gas can buy gas on the cheap during the summer when gas demand is really low.
- A good time to do some conservation. Turn down the thermostat and turn down the water heater if you can.
- SoCal Gas does have a variety of gas assistance programs
- My coworker has retired, so now I'll be covering not only Temescal Valley south, but also Corona, Norco, Eastvale, Jurupa Valley, Riverside, and the other 14 cities
- We are now doing experiments on hydrogen to determine whether or not the stuff works in our pipes. We have to get California Public Utilities Commission approvals, and we're hoping that we can get this stuff done before 2030. We do have some testing's where you can take solar off the rooftop, split water, make electricity at home and have a complete standalone system.

5.3 Renaissance Ranch Project on Horsethief Canyon

- Lance Retuya, T&B Planning, Inc.
- The Renaissance Ranch Project
 - Increases open space conservation habitat area by 116%
 - Consistent with the County's Good Neighbor Policy Guidelines (300-foot setback)
 - Physical and visual buffers between project and existing homes
 - Reduces traffic due to reverse commute times
 - Reduces service needs compared to residential (fire, police, parks)
 - Heavy truck traffic prohibited along the private drive and Calendula Street
 - State-of-the-art lighting reduces glare into surrounding neighborhoods
 - Truck idling times restricted by AQMD
 - Re-allocates prepaid Quimby fee of approximately $383,000 towards other public benefits
 - Three traffic signals to be installed ($2.3M) at: 1) Horsethief Canyon Road and Street A; 2) Horsethief Canyon Road and De Palma Road; 3) Horsethief Canyon Road and Temescal Canyon Road
 - Contributes $5M to upgrade Horsethief Treatment Plant
 - Includes local road improvements and generates $4.57M in TUMF fees
 - Constructs new water tank providing area with water supply and fire protection
 - Increases County's tax revenue base
 - Reduces service needs compared to residential
 - Reduces water and sewer demand
 - Provides new local employment opportunities
 - Provides new locations for local small businesses
 - Preserves privacy for adjacent residents
 - Accommodates County-designated community trail along Street A
- The project concerns communicated include: 1) noise; 2) lighting; 3) stop lights; 4) truck traffic should not be allowed on De Palma Road but should be directed to Temescal Canyon Road

6.0 Public Comments
