SUPERVISOR KEVIN JEFFRIES
FIRST DISTRICT
Temescal Valley Update 11/9/22

Supervisory District Changes: – Starting on January 1, 2023 Supervisor Karen Spiegel’s Office will be taking over the responsibilities of the Temescal Valley area. Her office will be responsible for County Land Use, Riverside County Transportation, Riverside County Code Enforcement, all other County agencies, and other constituent services in the Temescal Valley region. In addition to those county agencies the Temescal Valley MAC meetings will be facilitated by Supervisor Spiegel’s office including MAC Board schedules and specifics of future meetings. Supervisor Spiegel’s Office can be reached at (951) 955-1020 and district2@rivco.org.

Air Quality Municipal District (AQMD) – Our office has received a few complaints about odor in the Temescal Valley Region. If you have any issues such as unpleasant odors or something to do with air quality, please feel free to report those to South Coast Air Quality Management District (SCAQMD) with the link below:
